

Features and Benefits

- Probe holders are anodized aluminium with 2" BSP openings positioned for easy access and wiring.
- O-ring seal is standard for short and tall caps.
- The three bolt locking ring prevents probe movement and seals the housing from product splash and vapours.